

Building Trip Supervisor

Vebege Foundation

Since 2005, the Vebego Foundation has organised building trips to countries where additional support can make a lasting difference. These trips give colleagues the opportunity to work alongside local communities and partners on projects that contribute to education, development and improved living conditions. Sri Lanka and Morocco have been the Foundation's key destinations for many years.

For upcoming building trips, we are looking for dedicated and enthusiastic Building Trip Supervisors who can guide participants through a meaningful and life-changing experience.

What Will You Do?

As a Building Trip Supervisor, you are the connecting link between participants, the Vebego Foundation and local partners. You help create a safe, inspiring and well-organised journey while ensuring that participants make a safe and positive contribution to the local project and return home safely as ambassadors for the Foundation's mission.

Before the Trip

- Participate in preparation (a.o. itinerary, accommodation) and introduction sessions.
- Support individual participants in preparing (a.o. vaccinations, visa, tickets, insurance, home contact information) for the journey.
- Share information about culture, safety, expectations and teamwork.
- Help identify potential risks and group dynamics.
- Support the Vebego Foundation in preparing the participants as a group for the trip

During the Trip

- Guide and support an international group of colleagues
- Act as the primary point of contact for participants.
- Ensure the wellbeing, safety and engagement of the group.
- Encourage teamwork, inclusion and mutual respect.
- Work closely with local project partners and community representatives.
- Facilitate daily reflection and learning moments.
- Help participants understand the impact of the project and their contribution.

After the Trip

- Contribute to evaluation and follow-up sessions.
- Encourage participants to become active ambassadors of the Vebego Foundation.
- Share lessons learned and recommendations for future building trips.

We are looking for colleagues who are experienced leaders and:

- Are passionate about social impact and community development.
- Enjoy connecting and inspiring people.
- Commit themselves for a minimum of three years
- Are available for 20 days a year for the year a building trip is organized.
- Take responsibility and lead by example.
- Have a positive, coaching-oriented leadership style.
- Feel comfortable working in an international and multicultural environment.
- Are fluent in both speaking and writing in English. Speaking Singalees (Sri Lanka) or Arabic/French (Morocco) is considered an advantage
- Remain calm and effective when faced with unexpected situations.
- Are motivated to help others grow and succeed.
- Have experience in group facilitation, volunteering, project work or international collaboration is considered an advantage.

You Recognise Yourself in the Following Qualities

- Strong people skills
- Connecting and motivating leadership style
- Excellent communication skills
- Cultural awareness and sensitivity
- Problem-solving mindset
- Resilience under pressure
- Passion for social impact
- Natural ambassador for Vebego's values

What's In It for You? Being a Building Trip Supervisor is much more than travelling abroad. It is an opportunity to:

- Make a direct and visible social impact.
- Work with colleagues from different countries and backgrounds.
- Strengthen your leadership and coaching skills.
- Gain new perspectives on inclusion, collaboration and sustainable development.
- Contribute to the mission and impact of the Vebego Foundation.
- Our Mission

We believe that everyone deserves the opportunity to participate and thrive. By working together on projects that strengthen communities, we create lasting impact for people around the world and for our own colleagues. The Sri Lanka and Moroccan Building Trips are a powerful example of this commitment.

Interested?

Tell us, before the 14th of September why you qualify, why you would be a great Building Trip Supervisor and how you would contribute to creating a safe, inspiring and unforgettable experience for all participants.

Please send your application to Rob.Westerlaken@vebego.nl and jacqueline.goedmakers@vebego.com

Great work
